c/ In addition, appropriation act provided $11,775,000 to be transferred from Section 32 funds.

d/ In addition, the 1966 budget proposes transfer and merger of $24,600,000 from Section 32 funds.

e/ Includes contingency funds of $1,500,000 for use to the extent necessary to meet emergency outbreaks of insects and plant disease.

f/ In addition, the 1960, 1961, 1962, 1963, 1964, and 1965 appropriation acts and budget estimate for 1966 include a reappropriation of $1,000,000 of prior-year funds to provide for additional labor to be employed to strengthen research installations in the field.

g/ Represents that portion of the allocations by the Budget Bureau of foreign currencies accruing from sales of agricultural commodities under Title I of the Agricultural Trade Development and Assistance Act of 1954, as amended (P.L. 480), which are generated in countries where the currencies becoming available are either excess to the normal requirements of the United States or limited by the terms of the sales agreement to specific uses.

h/ In addition, the appropriation acts provide $1,500,000 in 1964, and $400,000 in 1965 to be transferred from Section 32 funds; and in 1966 the budget proposes transfer and merger of $400,000 from Section 32 funds.

i/ In addition, 1961 appropriation act authorized reappropriation of $600,000 of prior-year funds to employ conservation aides and other non-professional personnel on a part-time or contract basis.

j/ Prior-year balances available.

k/ In addition, $285,000 transferred from Section 32 funds.

l/ This activity was financed by advances from the Commodity Credit Corporation in fiscal years 1957 through 1962.

m/ In addition, the appropriation act provided $51,500,000 for this program to be transferred from Section 32 funds.

n/ In addition, appropriation acts authorize and budget estimate proposes that the following amounts be transferred from Section 32 funds for purchase of agricultural commodities for distribution to schools: 1959, $35,000,000; 1960, $43,657,248; 1961-1966, $45,000,000 each year.

o/ In addition, the appropriation act provided $35,000,000 for this program to be transferred from Section 32 funds.

p/ Includes, in addition to annual appropriations, that portion of the allocations by the Budget Bureau of foreign currencies accruing from sales of agricultural commodities under Title I of the Agricultural Trade Development and Assistance Act of 1954, as amended (P.L. 480), which are generated in countries where the currencies becoming available are not excess to the normal requirements of the United States.

q/ In addition, appropriation acts authorize and budget estimate proposes that the following amounts be transferred from Section 32 funds and merged with the appropriation: 1960, $2,745,709; 1961-1966, $3,117,000 each year.

r/ In addition, $8,800,000 was appropriated in the Supplemental Appropriation Act, 1965, to the Office of Economic Opportunity and transferred to this Department for indemnity payments to dairy farmers.

s/ In addition, transfers from the Commodity Credit Corporation fund were authorized and proposed, as follows: 1957, $41,419,975; 1958, $44,657,334; 1959, $42,021,230; 1960, $40,864,071; 1961, $70,837,460; 1962, $74,277,900; 1963, $78,359,127; 1964, $91,707,567; 1965, $99,230,100 (including pay costs); 1966, budget estimates, $75,390,000. 1964 amount excludes transfer of $3,079,433 to Office of the Inspector General and $98,000 to Foreign Agricultural Services.

t/ The 1966 Budget estimates propose an advance authorization of $120,000,000 (excluding administration) for the 1966 crop year program for which an appropriation will be requested in 1967.

u/ Represents, in fiscal years 1957 through 1964, amounts transferred from other agencies of the Department. 1963 amount includes transfer of $225,000 specifically authorized by 1963 Appropriation Act.

v/ Represents, in fiscal years 1957 through 1964, amounts transferred from other agencies of the Department.

w/ Includes contingency fund for use to the extent necessary as follows: (1) $5,000,000 for emergency fire fighting and (2) $1,910,000 for insect and disease control.

x/ Includes transfers from corporate funds to Office of the Inspector General and Office of Management Services, which represent a part of the funds shown for these agencies.

y/ The amounts shown reflect not only the regular authorization to borrow from the Secretary of the Treasury as set forth in the annual appropriation acts, but also includes that portion of the contingency or reserve authorization utilized during each fiscal year. The figures shown do not necessarily represent the amount of loans actually approved in each fiscal year, since loan funds carried over from prior years together with rescissions from previously approved loans were also available.

z/ The amounts shown reflect not only the regular authorization to borrow from the Secretary of the Treasury as set forth in the annual appropriation acts, but also includes that portion of the contingency or reserve authorization utilized during each fiscal year.

aa/ Includes $675,000,000 provided by the Second Supplemental Appropriation Act, 1960, $100,000,000 to complete restoration of 1958 realized losses and $575,000,000 for partial restoration of 1959 realized losses. The remaining $1,435,424,413, included in the regular 1960 appropriation act, was for partial restoration of 1958 realized losses.

bb/ Consists of $632,000,994 to complete restoration of 1959 realized losses and $594,499,006 for partial restoration of 1960 realized losses.

cc/ To complete restoration of 1960 realized losses.

dd/ Includes $78,000,000 authorized transfer from the 1958 appropriation for "Acreage reserve program".

ee/ Appropriation Acts and Budget Estimate provide that not less than 7% of the limitation shall be placed in reserve for use only as necessary to carry out program operations.

Note - Details may not add to totals shown due to rounding. -Minus figures indicate excess of collections over expenditures.

a/ Includes Emergency Conservation Measures

b/ Reduced expenditures beginning with fiscal year 1962 reflect establishment of a direct loan account in that year pursuant to Section 338(c) of the Consolidated Farmers Home Administration Act of 1961. Under this Act, collections of principal and interest on loans are deposited into the direct loan account, thereby reducing expenditures.

a/ Revenue and nonrevenue receipts available to the Treasury for general expenditures of the Government.

b/ Revenue and nonrevenue receipts deposited in the Treasury for specific purposes, pursuant to various legislative authorizations.

c/ Collections of principal and interest on these loans are treated as credits against loan and other expenditures, which include interest payments to Treasury as shown.

d/ Beginning in fiscal year 1965, under proposed legislation, collections of principal and interest on electric and telephone loans would be deposited into a loan account as credits against expenditures for new loans and for interest payments on borrowings from Treasury. These payments represent receipts to Treasury as shown.

e/ Represents the portion of the total receipts from national forests available for (1) 25% fund for payments to States for benefit of roads and schools, (2) 10% fund for construction and maintenance of roads and trails in States from which proceeds are derived, (3) appropriations from forest receipts for acquisition of lands, cooperative range improvements, and special payments to Minnesota counties in which Superior National Forest lands are located, and (4) appropriations for Land and Water Conservation fund activities.

f/ Amounts shown represent 65% of the receipts from the Tongass National Forest. The remaining 35% of these receipts are distributed to Alaska (25%) and to the fund for construction and maintenance of roads and trails (10%) in accordance with Public Law 758, 84th Congress.

g/ For payment to counties in which such lands are located.

h/ Receipts deposited in trust in the Treasury for expenditure by the Department, as trustee, for specified purposes.

i/ Distributed to the reclamation fund and to States in which the lands are located.

k/ Includes trust fund receipts as well as general and special fund receipts.
